

California Real Estate Education Association

The California Real Estate Education Association (CREEA) is a chapter of the Real Estate Educators Association (REEA), a national organization headquartered in Chicago, Illinois. CREEA was formed in 1985 with the merger of the California Association of Real Estate Teachers (CARET) and the Real Estate Certificate Institute (RECI). The RECI designation requires successful completion of ten college-level real estate courses.

The purpose of CREEA is to promote and enhance educational and professional standards of competence and performance among all real estate practitioners, as well as to facilitate communication and cooperation among all those concerned with the varied aspects of real estate education. CREEA members come from colleges, universities, proprietary schools, regulatory agencies, real estate organizations, such as CAR and local boards of real estate, and educational material providers, such as publishers.

CREEA membership benefits include a quarterly newsletter, regional meetings and conferences, and a membership directory. Another important CREEA activity is the Norman Woest Award, which is given each year to an outstanding real estate educator in the state of California. Basis for selection includes classes, seminars and workshops taught, years of service, publications, and professional credentials, designations and affiliations. Past winners have included Dr. Robert Bond, Dr. Stanley S. Reybun, M. Joel Carlson, Louis B. Hansotte, Lou Jaroslovsky, Joseph W. DeCarlo, Jean C. Strohl, Edward T. Clare, Sr., Dr. Evelyn Winkel, John Strahl, Marjorie L. Reed, Larry L. Gentry, Silas J. Ely, Dr. Cecilia Hopkins, Lowell Anderson, Frank K. Battino, Dennis KcKenzie, Gerald Condon, William S. Reid, Don Wiedmann, Robert Bruss, Dr. William Pivar, Donna Lee Grogan, Ed.D., Fred L.Martinez, Walter Roy Huber and Mary Ellen Brady.

As a nonprofit organization which encompasses all areas of real estate, CREEA acts as a forum for ideas, recognition and growth for those involved in, and friends of, real estate education.
